MARCO LUTZ

BIO:

Marco grew up in Switzerland, got hooked on sliding sideways and travelled the world as professional freestyle snowboarder for over a decade. Then he bought a camera.

Marco fulfils all attributes of an exceptional talent. His filmmaking career began with a series of internationally acclaimed skate- and snowboarding-videos. Striking at that time was his creative approach to weave in little stories and his uncompromising way to deal with aesthetics and scenery. The consistent loyalty to these demands and his growing expertise in post-production make his films to what they are today: stories carried out with great sensitivity in big cinematic pictures.
